TWENTY-FIFTH SUNDAY in Ordinary Time

The parable in today's gospel has many explanations. In it, Jesus presents a lesson for his first disciples as well as for us - his disciples today. It is almost as if he is saying, "Everyone, no matter when they come to the faith, is equally precious to God." As Christ's disciples today, we need to celebrate each new generation and culture that comes to the faith. If we are to be the evangelizing parishes that God intends us to be, we need to welcome all those who come to our parishes. That means we can't disregard anyone, whether they speak a different language or have different religious practice or have different economic circumstances. Rather we are to see all as "equally precious to God."

Prayer for My Parish

Almighty God, my parish of Mary, Queen of Peace is composed of people like me. I help to make it what it is. It will be a friendly parish if I am friendly. It will be holy if I am holy. Its pews will be filled if I help fill them. It will do great work if I work. It will be prayerful if I pray. It will make generous gifts to various charities if I am a generous giver. It will be a parish family of loyalty and love, of fearlessness and faith, of compassion and charity if I - who make it what it is - am filled with these same qualities. Therefore, with the help of God, I will dedicate myself to the task of being all the things that I want my parish to be. Bless my journey, Lord God, that I might follow Jesus and build up the Church for your glory. Amen.

Our next book to read and share in discussion is:

Medjugorje: The Last Apparition
By Wayne Warble

THE LAST APPARITION goes well beyond the basics of what author Wayne Weible calls the most important event happening in the world today the ongoing daily apparitions of the Blessed Virgin Mary to six chosen visionaries in the little village of Medjugorje in Bosnia-Herzegovina. It is packed with vital new information in addition to the basic story of its beginnings and where it is today.

We have a limited number of books for sale at the Parish Office at the discounted rate of $15 each. Please call us at 781-396-0423 to get your copy, while supplies last. If you are interested in joining the Parish Book Club, please contact the Parish Office to sign up.

We look forward to seeing you!
