Dear Parishioners,

We announced at all the Masses on March 9 and 10 that Cardinal Sean O'Malley has appointed a new pastor for Mary Queen of Peace Parish, beginning on June 1. His name is Fr. Timothy Hynes, and he is currently a parochial vicar at St. Catherine of Siena in Norwood. Fr. Hynes visited Medford briefly last week, and is looking forward to coming here. Please see his message to the Parish below. And, for those who may be unaware ... I have been appointed by Cardinal Sean to be a spiritual director at St. John's Seminary in Brighton, beginning on June 1. Let's ask the Lord to guide and support us all during this time of transition.

Fr. Paul

Hello Mary, Queen of Peace!

It is a joy to make a simple introduction to you all through this short bulletin announcement. In the near future I look forward to a much more personal introduction on June 1st when I am privileged to join you all as pastor of Mary, Queen of Peace.

By now I am sure many of you are eager to get to know a little more about your next pastor. I assure you: He is just as eager to get to know you!

I was born and raised in Windham, New Hampshire, the fifth of eight children, all of whom have remained local. I attended undergraduate studies at what is now called Assumption University (in my day, still a college). From there I moved to Portsmouth, NH where I started my career as a software engineer in a small, but growing startup company. After three years in Portsmouth, I felt God calling me to something different, something that would draw me closer to him. This call was realized as an invitation to become a missionary in Barrios Altos, Lima, Perú, in a neighborhood some have called “desfavorecido” [unfavored].

After two years as a missionary I returned to the U.S. to restart my engineering career at a defense contractor in Cambridge, MA. Nevertheless, I continued to feel a calling to serve God's people in a more personal way. After much time in prayer and reflection, especially in Eucharistic Adoration, I discerned a call to enter the seminary to study for the priesthood. There at St. John's Seminary in Brighton the Lord continued to confirm that calling and at the end of my studies I was ordained a priest on May 18, 2019.

At that time, Cardinal Seán assigned me to St. Mary's, Foxboro, MA as parochial vicar. The first nine months of my ministry were quite ordinary until the world turned upside down in March, 2020. During that time, I was privileged to take up residence in Lynnfield, MA as a member of the priest COVID response team. For more than two months my mission was to bring the Most Holy Eucharist, the Sacrament of the Sick, and Last Rites to the ill and dying around the North Shore and beyond. It was a very grace-filled time in my life as a priest to be able to bring the Sacraments to those otherwise living in isolation with very little human contact.

Eventually, I returned to parish life in Foxboro where I remained until I was asked to take a new assignment as parochial vicar at St. Catherine of Siena in Norwood, MA. This 1st of June will mark the end of my two years here at St. Catherine's and the start of my new term as pastor of Mary Queen of Peace in Medford. While I am saddened at the prospect of leaving behind the many wonderful friendships that have developed in these two parishes over the last five years, I am excited to get to work in the vineyard of the Lord in Medford where I am sure many new friendships await.

Please be assured of my prayers for you all and, if you would be so kind, please pray for me also, that I may be the holy pastor God calls me to be and that you all most certainly deserve!

Sincerely yours in Christ Jesus,

-Fr. Hynes
