While we know how today's scripture ends, make every effort to listen to the passion narrative as if hearing it for the first time. Pay attention to your feelings as you listen to each reading. What do you hear that you don't recall having heard before? Does the reading from Isaiah call me to confess that Jesus is Lord? In response to St. Paul, am I willing to be humble in my service? In response to the passion account, am I ready and willing to share Christ's extraordinary love with others? During this week called "holy" make an extra effort to ponder the paschal mystery – Christ's life, death and resurrection – his saving action for you.

Concetta "Connie" Grassini

We remember in our prayers our deceased parishioners & loved ones.

Our next book to read and share in discussion is:
The Great Divorce* By C. S. Lewis

A timeless novel about a bus ride from Hell to Heaven. In The Great Divorce, C. S. Lewis again employs his formidable talent for fable and allegory. The writer finds himself in Hell boarding a bus bound for Heaven. The amazing opportunity is that anyone who wants to stay in Heaven, can. This is a starting point for an extraordinary meditation upon good and evil, grace and judgment. Lewis' revolutionary idea is the discovery that the gates of Hell are locked from the inside. Using his extraordinary descriptive powers, Lewis' The Great Divorce will change the way we think about good and evil.

We have a limited number of books for sale at the Parish Office at the discounted rate of $10 each. Please call us at 781-396-0423 to get your copy, while supplies last.
